Local Brothers Return to Crunch Some Metal

Sublimity Harvest Festival brings home

Monster truck drivers Daron & Aaron Basl

Stayton, Ore. 9 Aug. 2010 – On September 10-12, the Sublimity Harvest Festival will celebrate 38 years of tractor pulls, truck pulls and monster truck madness that attracts an average audience of 28,000 guests. This year, guests look forward to bringing home Daron Basl who will drive the El Matador monster truck and his brother Aaron Basl who will drive The Patriot. The Basl brothers grew up in Stayton, Ore. and now travel the U.S. performing at monster truck shows.

“Last year was the first time we’ve gotten to come back there. This was actually where we saw the first monster truck. I remember Mike Welch the Super Pete Monster Mash from way back. Norm Miller drove the Barefoot truck there, I always liked watching him,” Daron recalls. Now, Miller works with BJ Tuttle to coordinate the monster truck portion of the show.

The Basl family has a long-standing tradition of involvement with the Sublimity Harvest Festival. They have participated in the truck pull event at the Festival for years. Now, years later, the brothers come back from Magnolia, Texas to Sublimity, Ore. to continue to leave their mark in this small town.

The Basl brothers perform during the freestyle part of the show after the truck pulls each night. “We do wheelies, big air and donuts,” says Daron. “I like to see how high in the air I can get. The crowd just goes wild.”

The event features tractor, truck, ATV and horse pulling competitions; monster trucks; a fun run; parade; entertainment tent; Kid Zone; live music; and commercial and food vendors. Monster truck sponsors include AWI Diesel Truck Repair, Les Schwab, Siegmund Excavation and Allied Rock, McCoy Freightliner and Slayden Construction. Event Day sponsors include Superior Tire Company and Peterson Company.

The Festival is held on the Harvest Festival Grounds at 11880 Sublimity Rd SE in Sublimity. For a detailed schedule w/ event times, visit: www.sublimityharvestfest.com/schedule.php.
