Call for Non-Profits to Participate in New Cause Day

Sign up before Aug. 10 for

Sublimity Harvest Festival's first Cause Day

Stayton, Ore. 19 July 2011 – Non-profit organizations from around the state will come together for the first annual "Cause Day" hosted by the Sublimity Harvest Festival on Sunday, September 11 at the Harvest Festival Grounds: 11880 Sublimity Rd SE, Sublimity. The special event is open to a variety of causes and registration is open until August 10. This display is nicknamed "Non-profit row" and these organizations will share their messages as part of an overall awareness promotion.

On September 9 -11, the Festival will celebrate 39 years of tractor pulls, truck pulls and monster truck madness that attracts an audience of more than 20,000 guests each year. "This year, the Festival membership felt it was important to recognize various social causes, be it cancer awareness or striking out hunger," explained Festival President BJ Tuttle. "Our members tend to be deeply involved in different causes and we thought this would provide an opportunity for them to share their interests."

The three-day Festival attracts people from all over the Pacific Northwest. The event features tractor, truck, ATV and horse pulling competitions; monster trucks; a fun run; parade; entertainment tent; Kid Zone; live music; and commercial and food vendors. Monster truck sponsors include AWI Diesel Truck Repair, Les Schwab, Siegmund Excavation and Allied Rock, McCoy Freightliner and Slayden Construction. Other major sponsors include Scales NW, Peterson Company and Superior Tire Company, Linn Benton Tractor, Santiam Towing & Recovery, Sunbelt Rentals, North Santiam Paving, Power Chevrolet and Power Yamaha. For a detailed schedule with event times, visit: www.sublimityharvestfest.com/schedule.php.

A booth space in non-profit row is free with proof of valid non-profit registration. Applicants must be approved by the Sublimity Harvest Festival; space is available on a first-come, first-served basis. To sign up, contact vendor coordinator Haley Hamilton at 503.979.0092 or shfsecretary@wvi.com. As a part of Cause Day, Marion-Polk Food Share will be collecting cans of food. Guests who bring two cans of food will receive $2 off their Sunday general admission ticket.

Pre-sale tickets for the Friday and Saturday shows are available at Wilco Farm Stores and Wholesale Sports beginning August 16, 2011. To learn more about the event or for ticket information, visit www.sublimityharvestfest.org or call the Festival Grounds at 503.769.3579.
